FROLIC FOR CHILDREN.

Hundreds Attend Opening of Playgrounds of Public Schools.

Fully 2,000 children attended the opening of the city's playgrounds yesterday. There was a great rush for the grounds early in the morning. The "young ideas" crowded onto the baseball diamonds, handball courts, and swings.
Sixteen grounds were opened: Congress Heights, Jefferson, Arthur, Ketcham, Dennison, Ludlow, Henry, Bowen, Industrial Home, and Tower schools; and the Magruder, Phillips, Langston, Bell, Stevens, and Payne colored schools.
A director supervises the frolics of the children, and on the larger grounds, an assistant director is provided.
The grounds are open, except Sunday, from 9:30 to 11 a. m. and from 5 to 8 p. m.

Moore, vice president and general manager of the company, on a cruise down the Potomac River and up Chesapeake Bay to Baltimore, leaving Washington early this morning. They will arrive in Baltimore Monday, and will board a train for Atlantic City, returning to Washington the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Sherman to Be Removed.

Vice President Sherman went to Utica, N. Y., yesterday to arrange for the removal of Mrs. Sherman from Johns Hopkins University Hospital, in Baltimore, to her home in Utica. Mrs. Sherman's condition has improved greatly.

MY LITTLE DOG.

My little dog Dot is a sassy pup, and I scold him in savage tones, for he keeps the garden all littered up with feathers and rags and bones. He drags dead cats for a half a mile, and sometimes a long-dead hen; and when I have carted away the pile, he builds it up again. He howls for hours at the beaming moon, and thinks it a Melba chore; and neighbors who list to his throbbing tune, rear up in the air and roar. And often I hand down this stern decree: "This critter will have to die." And he puts his paws on my old fat knee, and turns up a loving eye; and he wags his tail, and he seems to say: "You're almost too fat to walk, and your knees are sprung and your whiskers gray, and your picture would stop a clock; some other doggies might turn you down—some dogs that are proud and grand, but you are the best old boss in town; I love you to beat the band!" And he bats his eye and he wags his tail, conveying this kindly thought; and I'd rather live out my days in jail, than injure that derved dog Dot!

CELEBRATION FUND

MAY REACH $3,000

Sane Fourth Committee to Provide Big Day.

Much to the relief of those in charge of the Capital's safe and sane Fourth of July celebration, the fund for this purpose has been steadily increasing during the last couple of days, until it is confidently expected to reach $3,000. Response to the appeals of the committee has been most gratifying.

The program, which has been arranged for the Fourth is an elaborate one. Beginning at 3:45 o'clock and ending fifteen hours later, the celebration will include features of all kinds, from patriotic speeches to swimming races in the pools and foot races on the new oval. Fireworks in the evening and a complete illumination of the Avenue by thousands of electric lights will complete the day.

Appeals are being made to all citizens to have their private residences and dwellings decorated for the Fourth. "The use of firecrackers and fireworks is highly injurious," said one of the committee on decorations, "but if each family would put the money into decorations for the house, Washington would present a gala appearance."

In nearly all the different sections of the city there will be separate celebrations. In Eckington, Bloomingdale, and Brightwood there will be distinct ceremonies, in addition to the ones to be held in the center of the city. This will insure those who do not care to go far from home an opportunity to see and enjoy the celebration of the Fourth. Every effort will be made by the police to have this in reality a "safe and sane" Fourth, and orders have gone forth to have the police interpret the laws against firecrackers and fireworks literally and to see there are no infringements.
